PINK COAT GOES TO CANADA

AMERICAN DERBY WINNER OF 1898 IS DO-NATED TO CANADIAN BREEDING BUREAU,

Was in First Flight Among Three-year-olds of Season That Was Notable for Good Ones-Pinkola His Best Son.

Montreal, Que., December 11.—Pink Coat, a Derby inner, and sire of Derby winners, has been donated J. F. Ryan, for the Canadian National Bureau of

It is one of the real sturdy horses of the American turf, and until he was seven years of age was a factor in raching on the western tracks. Most of his and the course west of the course west of the course hosts notable course west of migray for the several health of the majority of his taw would have been as a factor in trimphs. He was foaled in 1855, and is a son of Leonadas and Alice Brand, a daughter of the mighty Hudos. His sire won the Kennicky Berby of 1883 and illudos, the sire of his dam, won the same immor hant event in 1881. Such a strain needs little comment, for on both sire and dam side he traces to hohe but the best. Leonatus was a son of Long-fellow and Semper Felix, by Phacton. Through the male line he traces to Leonatus was a son of Long-fellow and Semper Felix, by Phacton. Through the male line he traces to Leonatus was a son of Long-fellow and Semper Felix, by Phacton. Through the male line he traces to Leonalugeon, the English sire that did so much for the American throughdred.

Alice Braud was a daughter of Hindoo and Lady of the Lake, by Hyder All, hinself a son of Leonalugeon and out of Lady buke, by Levington. Thus that the leonal business of the second son the surface of the lady has been always to the lady has been dicap.

From Canada be was sent to the Empire City. Frack at Youkers, N. Y., and there he ran one of bis most remarkable races as a three-year-old, when he secored in the Empire City Handicap, one mile and an eighth. In that race Pink Coat's best son took the measure of such remarkable horses as Frank Cill, King James, Jack Atkin, Gretin Green, Master Robert, and others of almost like quality. It was by long odds the best field that was brought together during the Empire City meeting, and the victory was a truly remarkable one.

All through his racing career, Pinkola proved himself a horse of remarkable speed, a horse of rare courage, and that he had quality was well demonstrated when he won his best races in New York.

OFFICIALS TO BE NAMED THIS WEEK.

Charlestou, S. C., December 11.—It was stated yesterday that a meeting of the stewards of the New York Jockey Clink, under the auspices of which the Charleston Fair and Racing Association purposes to hold its meeting, will take place this week and that at this meeting the names of the officials selected for the Charleston meeting will be submitted for approval.

A unmber of well-known horse owners have reached Charleston during the past few days, and reports indicate that there has been a considerable increase in the demand for apartments and rooms in lodging houses.

ANOTHER EFFORT IN NEW YORK.

Lexington, Ky., December 11.—Maj. P. P. Johnston, president of the American Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, who has just relumed from a meeting of the association in New York, states that the talked with James R. Keene, who expressed strong hope of the restoration of racing in New York State and indicated his intention of joining with other castern breeders and turfanen in an effort to have the drastic anti-racing law modified or revealed during the approaching session of the New York Legislature.

SOME OF THE SUCCESSFUL HORSES OF THE PRESENT YEAR

During the eleven months ending with November 30 of the current year 3,636 horses raced over the recognized tracks of the United States, Canada and Mexico. More than ten per cent, of the total number, or, to be exact, 379 are credited in the records with having won five or more races. The distinction of inving scored most frequently goes to T. D. Sullivan's Caugh Hill, whose record is fifteen firsts out of inity-six starts, in six of which he ran unplaced. Next in this respect comes C. F. Buschemeyer's crack two-year-old, Hawthorn, whose record of fourteen firsts out of initeteen starts is far more meritorious than that of the leader. Hawthorn was unplaced to only one race. Others with notable records are Effendl. Gilbert Rose, Fundamental and High Private, all of which were winners of thirteen races, and Grover Hughes and Kontenuy, both of which were The following tabulation on the content of the state of the content of t

CARMAN HORSES IN FORM

RACERS FROM NEW YORKER'S POWERFUL STABLE WIN HALF OF JUAREZ CARD.

Sir Alvescot, Ella Bryson and Feather Duster Make Up Trie of Winners That Score for Prominent Eastern Owner in Successive Races.

El Paso, Tex., December 11.—The majority of the favorites won at Junrez (oday. The weather has cleared and the sun shone hrighty, while the track showed decided improvement, the going being quite good.

R. F. Carman won three of the six races with Sir Alvescot, Ella Bryson and Feather Duster, Elizabeth Harwood, a favorite from his burn that met defeat, was claimed by J. Cuneo for $525 and when Ella Bryson carried his colors to victory in the fifth race she was bid up by T. B. Mumford, the trainer of Wade McLemore's stable, from $400 to $1,200. Mr. Carman protected and retained his filly, then retained by claiming Mr. McLemore's filly Lady Rankin for $1,025.

Jockey Cotton was suspended by the starter for five days.

George Rose dropped out of the layers' row today. Mrs. W. G. Jenkins, of Boise, Idaho, who is racing quite a pretentions string here and also has the contract on Jockey Forsythe, one of the promising lightweight riders in this section, arrived here last evening. She contemplates staying throughout the meeting.

Early Wright is a late comer from Jamestown, Rompie, the property of W. G. Yanke, while taking his morning gallop, threw out his stife and is usuch condition that he may have to be destroyed.

Jack Sturgis, a well-known eastern turfman and as big an operator as there is on the turt today, has come to remain throughout the winter.

Tom C. Barnes of Chicago, a brother of Col. W. S. Barnes, the Lexington turfman, was a visitor today.

Tom C. Barnes of Chicago, a brother of Col. W. S. Barnes, the Lexington turfman, was a visitor today.

S. L. James, a heavy operator from New York, will be here all winter.

T. H. Ryan has arrived from Wilmington, 111., with five young horses.

F. T. Wood, the well known Texas breeder, is a recent arrival. Mr. Wood has five yearlings here that will be raced in due season.

W. J. Glasscock arrived from the middle west with three horses.

Lon Beall, a familiar figure on the different tracks, came in from San Francisco last night to spend the wilner.

GOSSIP FROM EASTERN TRACKS.

New York, December 11.—The racing string of Jack Mctilunis has arrived from Norfolk. The three-year-old Sam Jackson, which showed mach improvement after graduating from the malden class at Havre de Grace, gives promise of developing into a nseful campaigner, and trainer McGinnis is highly pleased with the recent performances of this horse. Monty Fox, which was taken out of a selling race by Mr. McGinnis last fall, has proved a displayment of the possesses a high turn of speed, but is lacking in staying qualities. He will probably be given a chance to prove his worth over the impostrate of the most recent acquisition to the McGinnis string is the two-year-old fility Whisper Belle, by Ellisdale—Worst. This filly was bought from Thomas Fortune Ryan at Pinulico.

John Clerico, the old-time jockey who successfully inandled the Gideon stable last season, has received three yearlings from the Piping Rock collection. They were shipped by Allan Pinkerton and appear to be prounising material. They have been quartered in the old Hyland stable facing the Sheepshead Bay track.

Biackford and Cliff Edge, which carry the Watkins' sliks, were sick horses when they arrived from Norfolk last week. Both were suffering with a high fever, but are now out of danger.

Eddie Purcell has arrived from Norfolk with the wo-year-old Burgeois, the property of Mr. Earle. He has disposed of the two-year-old fility Hnda Mald, and she luss been shipped to Jnarez. Praceil is comfortably located in the old John Morris barn at the Bay.

George Chipchase has two promising jumpers in Charlie Hargrave and Elinar. Neither has been raceythrough the field, but they have both schooled well. The are wintering at the Sheepshead Bay track.

GOVERNOR BLEASE'S ATTITUDE.

Columbia, S. C., December 11.—"1 am opposed to gambling in any form," said Governor Cole L. Blease when asked what was his attitude toward the race meeting which the Charleston Fair and Rachig Association proposes to open next month at Palmetto Park, Charleston. "I love to see two roosters light, but without gaffs. I love a game of cards, but let it be a good, clean game. I don't irropose to go down there during the races to ferret out the gamiding, but I expect the sheriff and the citizens to do their duty. According to the act passed by the Legislature against gambling, any celtizen can go before a magistrate and swear out a warrant against a man for gambling at the races If the officers of the law find that the gambling is beyond their control and appeal to use to aid them in the matter, I will do my full duty."

ENGLAND'S COMING THREE-YEAR-OLDS.

By common consent, the crop of good juveniles this year was a fine one, and in Craganour there is reason for believing that we have at least one youngster quite in the top class. It is a far cry to the Derhy, however, and the experiences of recent years do not tend to make one particularly confident as to the future prospects of the leading exponents of invenile excellence. Mr. Huiton, with such as Shogan, Waloutha and Flippant, as well as other smart two-year-olds, should be able to play from a strong hand again next season, while other two-year-olds likely to develop into something out of the ordinary are Sanquhar, Louvois, Rock Flint, todden Sun, Radlani, Ma'oona and possibly Harmonicon, while the Irish champion, Sielpner, will also probably be seen fairly frequently on our courses.—"Augur," in Sporting Life.

ANOTHER BETTING BILL IN ENGLAND.

Some months ago, it will be remembered, the Bishop of Hereford introduced in the Honse of Lords a gambling advertisements bill, which, after being drastically criticised all round, was withdrawn. It was then intimated, however, that another bill would be brought in hy its supporters modified in accordance with the criticism passed ou the original hill. The use bill is now before the Honse of Lords, it was presented by the Duke of Devonshire, acting for Lord Newton. The object of the hill is to prevent the wriling, printing, publishing or circulating in the United Kingdom of advertisements of any betting or tipster's business. The bill was read a first time.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The races for army officers that are to take place at Juarez will be in addition to the regular program of six races.

The death of the two-year-aid Eleusis, by Hastings—St. Endora, is reported by J. C. Milain, his owner. The colt ran into a tree in a pasture near Lexington and injured hinself so severely that his destruction became necessary.

Robert Allen arrived at Juarez a few days ago from Missouri with a carload of horses, mostly yearlings and two-year-olds, and was forced to stable at Washington Park, ou the El Paso side. There is not a vacant stall at present within the Juarez enclosure.

Pote IIIII, who is tied with Clarence Turner for the American jeckey honors of 1912, Is a Texas lad who rode his first winner at Oklahoma City in 1911. His record for last year was five firsts, six seconds, three thirds and fifty times unplaced. It was not until the latter part of last season's Juarez meet-ing that he came to the front.

until the latter part of last season's Juarez meeting that he came to the front.

Contl la Belle, owned by Frank Jay Gould, won the Prix du Donon, a jumping race, at Saint Duen, in France, Monday, Novelty, owned by Charles Köhler, finished second, Nine horses ran, Jockey Chapman rode the winner and F. Williams was up on Novelty. Twenty francs on the winner brought 129 in return. The distauce was 3,300 meters, and the stakes 4,000 francs. Stoure, owned by Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., with Williams up, finished third in the Prix du Barrols, a steeplechase of 5,000 francs. The distance was 3,000 meters and eight horses rau, Viconte d'Harcourt's in Fortune wou the race.

Gen. U. Z. Steever, commauder of the Department of Texas. United States Army, accompanied by Col. Frank West, Colonel Fredericks, Major Isher, Major Clark, Major Mirray, Captain Hochersperger, Captain Lewis, Captain Van Way, Captain Mirchell and Captain Hanagan, made a tour of inspection of the stables at the Juarez track a few days ago. The commanding general, after looking over the big list of horses, selected Buckhorn and Melton Street as the two that filled the ideal for American army mounts. General Steever said that he had not in all his years of experience been permitted a chance to view as fine a lot of horses as are now quartered at the Mexican track.

IRELAND'S LEADING WINNING HORSES.

As the most valuable stakes in Ireland are for two-year-olds, it goes without saying that horses of that ages must come out on top of the winning horses' table at the end of the season, and of the slxteen performers that have won more than $2,565 in stakes, eight two-year-olds are in the list; six three-year-olds, including Civility, the Irish Derley winner, and Stilning Way, the Irish Oaks winner; one five-year-old, and one steeplechaser, the latter the aged Noble Grecian.
